

TEAMS QUIT IN ELEVENTH

Boston and Chicago Played a
Rattling Game

GAME ENDED, SCORE 4 TO 4

Tannehill Pitched Entire Game for Boston, Being Touched for Seven Hits—
Boston Bunched Four Runs in One Inning.

Boston, June 22.—Boston and Chicago battled for eleven innings for victory yesterday afternoon in the last game of the series and then had to quit to let Chicago catch a train for Detroit. The score was 4 to 4. Tannehill pitched the entire game for the home team and did good work, while Altrock pitched five and a half innings, being replaced by Walsh, who kept the game tied up after the sixth. It was a light hitting contest. The visitors scored twice in the third inning. With one down, Tannehill hit to Hahn. Jones was out to Barrett, but Isbell rapped out a two-bagger. Tannehill caught Isbell off second and Hahn dashed for home. With plenty of time Parent threw wild to the plate and both Hahn and Isbell scored. Donahue went out by way of Knight. Dougherty's home run gave them their third tally in the fourth.

By bunching hits and being aided by a little poor playing, Boston got in four scores in the sixth. After Tannehill had popped out, Sullivan and Parent both singled. Congalton jammed one at Donahue which could not be fielded. Jones then dropped Barrett's fly and Sullivan scored. Altrock was sent to the stable at this point, Walsh going into the box. Knight rapped out a Texas leaguer and Parent scored. Unglaub laid down a bunt which Walsh caught and Congalton scored. Jones took Ferris' fly but Barrett scored the fourth run. Armbruster ended the inning by fanning. After this Walsh was a perfect punter to the home hitters.

Chicago saved the game in the ninth on Dougherty's double and Quinn's single. Only one hit was made off Tannehill during the next two innings. Donahue getting a single and stealing second in the eleventh, only to die there, leaving the score to a tie. The score: Boston 4, Chicago 4.

Summary—Home run, Dougherty; two base hit, Dougherty, Isbell; stolen base, Jones.

BASE BALL NOTES

Several Goddard boys expect to play ball in the northern part of the state this summer.

Woodward, one of the university of Vermont "Ineligibles," is again playing with Fall River in the New England league.

Scanlon, one of Plattsburg in the Northern league, is still playing with Brooklyn, where he got a call from the Northern league.

If the Vermont league keeps its feet there will probably be some new names on the batting order next week, now that the colleges are closing.

Bill Higgins of last year's Burlington team, who has been studying in the university of Vermont, has joined Trenton in the Tri-state league.

Fisher left the Burlington team because he thought his playing on third base was being unjustly criticised in that city. He is a Burlington boy, too.

Mike Birmingham, who has been playing first base for Burlington, was named as other night, but the Burlington management is not sorry since he left his uniform.

Yonkers, N. Y., fans are so impressed with the work of Percy Brown, that they are saying that he is going with the New York Americans. Brown has been pitching rattling ball for Yonkers all the season. He is a Barre boy and might have been secured by Barre-Montpelier if the management could have paid the price. Yonkers offered higher money and he went. Percy has the build for a pitcher, being nearly six feet tall and weighing 173 pounds. He picked up his base ball knowledge with the "kids" teams about Barre.

Tom Hayes of Northern league repute, who has coached the university of Vermont team for two years, turning out a "crackerjack" team this spring, wants to take the entire college team to Newport, N. H., to play in the new Interstate league. Newport is said to have closed a deal with Hayes. Brattleboro, also in the same league, is said to have secured the entire Amherst college team to represent it. If such is the case there will be some fast ball in this infant Vermont-New Hampshire league, for both teams are able to travel some.

E. T. Salisbury, president of the Randolph base ball association, attended a meeting of managers of the newly formed Interstate league at White River Junction last week. Brattleboro, Springfield, Woodstock and Randolph, Vt., and Newport, Claremont, and Lebanon, N. H., were represented. Officers of the league were chosen and organization effected. Each team is limited to a salary list of $140 per-week and may not carry more than twelve men. The schedule of games, to be arranged soon, will cover the period from July 1 to September 10. There will be an average of two games a week for each team, one at home and one away. Randolph is taking hold of the matter in earnest and will be represented by a strong team. Players from the university of Vermont, Dartmouth and Montpelier have been secured and the management is after others. Local men will also be used, according to merit.

HUGHES MAY CALL FOR EXTRA SESSION

Apportionment Bill Deadlock Between the Two Houses at Albany.

Albany, N. Y., June 22.—Next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock the legislature will adjourn finally without passing an apportionment bill. The Senate refuses to recede from its position on the Tully bill, and the Assembly will not permit the bill to pass that House until Governor Hughes says so.

"We can afford to be knocked down and dragged out by the governor," says one of Speaker Wadsworth's friends, "but we can't afford to let the Senate do that to us."

It is not believed, however, that Gov. Hughes will send a message to the legislature asking the Assembly to pass the Tully bill, but it would not be at all surprising to see him call an extra session five minutes after this session adjourns.

CLEVELAND MAY LEAVE BED TO-DAY

Former President Has Good Night and Continues to Improve.

Princeton, N. J., June 22.—Former President Grover Cleveland, who is ill at his home here, passed a good night and continues to improve.

It was announced at his residence to-day that if his improvement continues he will be able to leave his bed to-day.

HELPLESS BEFORE TWINS

Manchester Swamped Yesterday,

MANY ERRORS BY VISITORS

Fraser Didn't Have to Exert Himself and in Spite of It Not a New Hampshire Man Got Beyond Second Base.

With a crippled team Manchester put up a lurch game of base ball at the Intercity park yesterday afternoon and were white washed by Barre-Montpelier 12 to 0. An even dozen errors were chalked up against Manchester while the home team played an errorless game. Joe Crapo of Montpelier on second base contributed three times to the error column. Rudolph, who was recently released by the Intercity, played short for the visitors and he also made three errors.

Fraser was in the box for the locals and although he only struck out three and allowed eight hits the perfect fielding of the team did not allow the visitors to get beyond second base once in the game. The locals scored in all but two of the eight innings, making three tallies in the second, fourth and sixth innings and one in the first, third and eighth. Needless to say they did not need to go to bat in their half of the ninth.

Holland started in to pitch for Manchester and he lasted for five innings when he was replaced by Finn in the sixth who was unable to stem the tide and four of the runs were made off him, aided by a bunch of errors by the rest of the team.

Over 100,000 shares were bought and sold in less than one month with a steady advance in price from 25 cents to 34 cents a share. This advance in price has been occasioned by the steadily increasing demand for stock, due to the added intrinsic value of the property.

Our superintendent at Silgalena reports fine grade ore and mill dirt coming out of David H. and that work on the John G. is coming splendidly, with a certainty of opening up the high-grade ore body only a few feet away on the vein which produced $250,000 in 40 days.
